Firey,	Purnell,	Tome.—10.
Given,

Mr. Briscoe submitted the following amendment:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly in pursuance of the 11th Article of the Constitution of this State is about to submit to the people thereof the expediency of calling a Convention to frame a new Constitution and form of Government, and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this General Assembly, that the relations of master and slave, as now established and sanctioned by the Constitution and Laws of the State should not be interfered with or abolished without providing just compensation therefor as indicated in the 46th section of the 3rd Article of the Constitution of this State, and Article 5 of the Constitution of the United States.

Which was read.

Pending the amendment,

Mr. Billingsley moved that Senate take a recess to 7 o'clock,

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Ohr moved that the Senate take a recess until 5 o'clock,

Determined in the affirmative.

The Senate adjourned.

TUESDAY, Jan. 26, 1864, 5 o'clock, P. M.
